

First Baptist Family,

Needless to say, there is a great deal of uncertainty in our world today. As followers of Jesus Christ we are blessed to have hope that goes beyond this world and it gives us a peace that passes understanding. While we can have hope that gives us strength in difficult times, we still serve a God who encourages us to seek wisdom (James 1:5) and is described as a God of order (1 Cor 14:33). Just as the Deacon's prayerfully and thoughtfully decided not to meet this past Sunday, the Trustees have also been in thought and prayer about the long-term future of the church.

With the possibility of us not being able to meet corporately for several weeks or even months, the trustees have spent time talking about the steps that need to be taken to ensure when we are able to reopen, we can do so. The Trustees have outlined several different scenarios based on how long the church will be closed and have plans in place. Areas that can be financially cut back without hurting the existing ministries of the church will cut. Their desire is to be able to continue to fully care for the church property, staff, and missionaries during this time.

Giving is an important part of being both a follower of Jesus and part of a body of believers. Giving is as essential now as it would be if we were meeting together. Without the weekly offering that would normally come in on a Sunday morning the church only has a few weeks' worth of reserve funds. In short, without the continued giving of the congregation, we are unlikely to survive this shutdown.

Jesus has this to say about giving... Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you." Luke 6:38

Paul reminds us..... Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 2 Corinthians 9:7

For over 300 years this church has shared the Good News of Jesus Christ with this community and the world and we would like to continue to do so. Your continued giving is necessary at this time. There are a couple of way you can continue to give.

#1 Mail your offering to the church. Our address is 101 South Main Street, Cape May Court House, NJ 08210.

#2 We now have online giving. The link for online giving can be found on the churches homepage: <http://firstbaptistcourthouse.org/>. Thorough instructions on how to sign up and use online giving will be attached to this email.

We thank you in advance for your love and support for this church. We believe that the ministries and missionaries we support will continue to grow even during this difficult time.

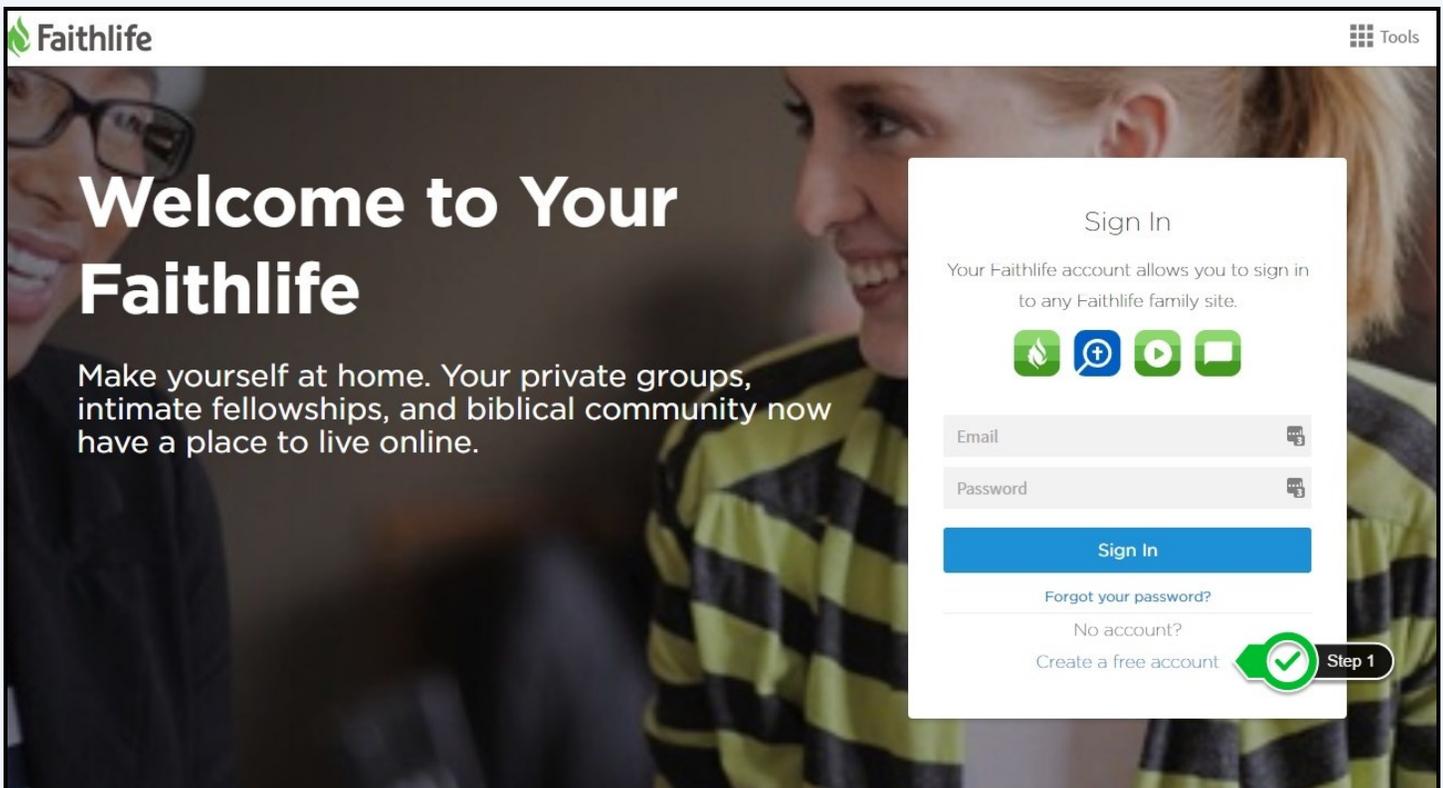

God Bless,
Pastor George
